REGISTRATION PROCEDURE FOR EU CITIZENS

Citizens from the European Union member states have the right to enroll to studies in Romania under the same conditions as Romanian citizens, directly to the universities, in accordance with Law no. 199/2023 on National Education, as subsequently amended and supplemented, the Government Decision no. 367/2023 on the approval of the Nomenclature of fields and university specializations / study programs and the structure of higher education institutions for the academic year 2023-2024, as subsequently amended and supplemented, the Order of the Minister of Education no. 3102/2022 of February 8th, 2022 on the organization of admission to bachelor's, master's and doctorate study cycles, as subsequently amended and supplemented and the Regulations of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași on the organization of the admission to bachelor's, master's and doctoral study cycles.

Applications for admission to study at Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași have to comply with the following:

- Files should be submitted to the Secretary Office of the Faculty within the required deadlines;
- Each Faculty Admission Board will assess the compliance with the Faculty and/or study program's entry requirements and accept/reject the applications;
- Registration and the admission exam takes place at the Faculty.

RECOGNITION OF STUDIES

Candidates should have the study diplomas recognized by the Romanian National Centre for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas (CNRED, https://cnred.edu.ro/).
Applications for recognition may be submitted either directly to CNRED or through Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, at least 30 days before the admission contest.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

A) Admission to studies in Romanian:

- Attending a full-degree programme in Romanian is conditioned by providing a recognized Romanian Language Certificate which may be issued by:

a) one of the Romanian universities accredited to offer the Preparatory Year of Romanian as a foreign language;

b) the Romanian Language Institute or the Romanian Cultural Institute

- Candidates who can prove that they have attended at least 4 years of study in Romanian do not need such a certificate.

- If a candidate does not speak Romanian, he/she must attend the courses of the Preparatory Year (2 semesters). During the first semester, international students will study Romanian language for the levels A1-A2. In the second semester, they will continue studying Romanian at an advanced level, focusing on the vocabulary specific to the subject areas chosen by the candidate (Medicine, Sciences, Economy, Law, Humanities). The purpose of the specialized language acquisition module is that of reaching levels B1-B2 by the end of the Preparatory Year.

Should candidates wish to study in a foreign language, they can choose from a list of degrees at Bachelor or Master level that are taught in English, French etc. (please refer to the English version of the university website https://www.uaic.ro/en/studies/degrees-on-offer-in-english-and-french/).

B) Admission to studies in foreign languages:

- Attending a full-degree programme in a foreign language is conditioned by passing a linguistic proficiency exam.
  - Candidates' language certificates submitted to their application files are assessed by the Commission of Admissions of the respective Faculty. Students who come from countries with the same official language as the one of their chosen study programme or those who provide an internationally recognized certificate of linguistic proficiency equivalent to CEFR level B2 – Upper-Intermediate (e.g. TOEFL, Cambridge, IELTS, DELF B2 or other language certificates as foreseen in the Order no. 5219/2010 issued by the Romanian Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sports) do not need to take the linguistic proficiency exam.
  - Candidates who include in their application files a language certificate that is not internationally recognized are admitted on condition that they pass the linguistic proficiency exam before the start of the academic year.
